3.45pm POSA's first 10 years Gala

- Acceptance speech by POSA President Davide Lacagnina
- Introduction and acknowledgements from the jury of the 2026 World Championship.
- Awards of merit for officials and members of the International Federation
- Introduction and performance by the "Queens of Pole Sport", who have won the world title every year since 2016

1. Rafaela Montanaro (USA) , Our first Queen, 2016 World Champion in Florence (Italy), 2017 in Vaduz (Liechtenstein) and 2019 in Hämeenlinna (Finland); in 2018 she won the World title in the Doubles category, alongside Melvin Sanchez (USA), and in 2019 she won the bronze medal at the CSIT World Sports Games in Tortosa (Spain).
2. Bianca Breschi (Italy), Our second Queen, World Champion in 2018 in Fort Lauderdale (USA), but already a silver medallist in 2016, 2017 and 2019, a bronze medallist at the 2017 European Championships in Budapest, as well as the winner of the 2019 CSIT World Sports Games in Tortosa (Spain)
3. Olena Minina (Ukraine), Our third Queen, 2021 World Champion in Bologna (Italy), where she also won the 2021 Pole Art World Championship (a title she also won in 2018 in Turin), having previously won bronze medals in 2016, 2017 and 2019, 2017 European Champion in Budapest, and silver medallist at the 2019 CSIT World Sport Games in Tortosa (Spain)
4. Beatrice Cogo (Italy), Our fourth Queen, crowned World Champion for the first time in 2022 in Sassuolo (Italy) and in Budapest in 2025 for the second time; silver medallist in 2021 (behind Olena Minina); silver medallist again in 2023 in Jyväskylä (Finland) behind Oona Kivela; and silver medallist in 2024 behind Anastasia Velieva.
5. Oona Kivela (Finland), Our fifth Queen needs no introduction; she is a global icon of our sport. Oona has won it all, and she was crowned 2023 World Champion right here in Finland, in front of her home crowd.
6. Our sixth Queen, unfortunately, cannot be here due to an injury that has kept her out of competition for several months—we're talking about Anastasia Velieva (Ukraine), the 2024 world champion in Cesenatico (Italy) and bronze medallist at the 2025 European Championships in Prague. Anastasia, we're looking forward to seeing you in top form at the next World Championships in 2027 in Spain!
7. In 2026, we will crown our seventh Queen…

Thank you all for these first 10 years of our journey—if we're here today, it's thanks to all of you!

See you in 2027 in Salamanca, Spain!
